COMBATANTS FOR PEACE

Only by joining forces
will we be able to end
the cycle of violence

SHIMON KATZ

Israeli member of Combatants for Peace, served as an officer in an elite IDF combat unit for four years, now risks jail for refusal to serve in the occupation.

SULAIMAN AL HAMRI

Palestinian coordinator of Combatants for Peace, spent four-and-a-half years in Israeli prisons for anti-occupation protests and demonstrations.

Date: Sunday, January 28, 2007

Time: 2:30 p.m.

Location: Central Reform Congregation
5020 Waterman at Kingshighway

Middle Eastern food and music by Children of Abraham

The Combatants for Peace movement was started by Palestinians and Israelis who had taken part in the cycle of violence between the two peoples. After brandishing weapons for so many years, these former combatants decided to put down their guns and fight instead for a peaceful negotiated solution.

This event is part of a 22-city US tour jointly sponsored by Combatants for Peace and Brit Tzedek v'Shalom (Jewish Alliance for Justice and Peace).

Co-Sponsors: Children of Abraham, Central Reform Congregation,
Students for a Peaceful Palestinian-Israeli Future
